INTRODUCTION

This is the fourth volume of the Tudor series (Part IV) of the edition of the London customs accounts (TNA: PRO E122). It is comprised of 1) the wool customs and subsidy particulars of account for 1495/96 and 2) the wool customs and subsidy particulars of account for 1501/02.

Everything the reader needs to understand about the English customs system – and the peculiarities of the customs administration in London – has been detailed in the introduction to the pilot edition.<sup>1</sup>

On the face of it, there is nothing out of the ordinary in these accounts which would require explanation. The wool customs system seems to tick over efficiently and noiselessly. The act of parliament of 8 Feb. 1473 – which mandated that the staple company retain all receipts from customs and subsidy on wool exported to Calais after 6 Apr. 1466, but made it responsible for all expenses relating to its defense (set at £10,022 4s 8d per annum)<sup>2</sup> – had been extended from 1488 for 16 years<sup>3</sup> and was still in force in 1495/96 and 1501/02.

WOOL CUSTOMS AND SUBSIDY 1495/96

The wool customs and subsidy account for 1495/96 is represented in one set of particulars of account but broken up into two accounting periods, the one running from Michaelmas 1495 to 8 July 1496, and the next running from 9 July 1496 to Michaelmas. William Tysted and Henry Assheborne accounted for receipts in the first accounting period, while Tysted accounted alone for the second. One presumes Asshebourne died while in office, but there is no mention of this either in the account itself, in the enrolled accounts or in the record of accounting before the full Exchequer.<sup>4</sup>

The customers had virtually no income to report when they accounted for crown receipts for 1495/96 in Easter term, 12 Henry VII,<sup>5</sup> since the staple merchants had retained the customs and subsidy on their exports before and after 6 Apr. 1496

(£14,217 19s 5¾d). This was done by authority of an act of parliament dated 9 Nov. 1487<sup>6</sup> and a royal mandate to the customers dated 20 May 1488, which was not copied onto the record of the hearing before the Exchequer<sup>7</sup> and has not survived otherwise.

WOOL CUSTOMS AND SUBSIDY 1501/02

Similarly, the customers had only a modest amount of income to report when they accounted for crown receipts for 1501/02 in Easter term, 17 Henry VII,<sup>8</sup> since the staple merchants had retained the customs and subsidy on their exports before and after 6 Apr. 1502 (£2821 4s). This was done by authority of an act of parliament dated 9 Nov. 1487<sup>9</sup> and a royal mandate to the customers dated 20 May 1488, which was not copied onto the record of the hearing before the Exchequer<sup>10</sup> and has not survived otherwise.

Modest though the revenue the customers reported was (£254 15s 5d), it was considerably more than the paltry sums the auditors had charged them or their predecessors in previous years. The reason for this increase in income was the export of 95½ sacks, 2 cloves of wool to Italy (versus partes exterarum et transmarinas per et ultra strictus de Marrok) by two indigenous staple merchants Avery and Christopher Rawson.<sup>11</sup> These exports did not fall under the terms of the act of parliament, which stipulated that the retention of wool customs and subsidy by the staple company applied to exports to Calais only. Since the Rawsons' exports were destined for Italy, the auditor charged them a total of £369 8s 4d at the alien rates (10s/sack customs, 6s 8d/sack wool subsidy) in addition to Calais duties (8d/sack), as the law required.<sup>12</sup> Accordingly, the auditor struck through the total the customers had given (£254 15s 5d) and entered the higher total (£369 8s 4d).

However, the Rawsons had exported their wool by the terms of a royal licence granted by patent on 9 July 1502 (Appendix 1), which allowed them to export a total of 500 sacks of wool to Italy (ultra montana, videlicet ultra strictus de Marrok), spread evenly over five years, but limited the total charge for customs, subsidy and all other duties to 4 marks (£2 13s 4d) per sack. Accordingly, when they appeared before the full Exchequer for their final accounting,<sup>13</sup> the customers petitioned for exoneration for the excess charge (£114 12s 11d), summarizing the king's patent (Appendix 1), proffering the king's mandate directed to them dated 12 Nov. 1502 (Appendix 2), citing the corresponding mandate to the Exchequer dated 7 Nov. 1502 (Appendix 3) and handing in the indenture they had drawn up with Avery and Christofer Rawson on 26 Sept. 1502, recording the export of the wool (Appendix 4). The Exchequer accepted their arguments and granted the requested exoneration.

Diplomatic Notes on the Form of the Edition

The transcriptions of Latin documents in this edition observe the conventions of the Monumenta Germaniae Historica. The source texts (and all variants) are reproduced in normal type, while editorial intrusions are printed without exception in italics (e.g. mardre L3, in error). Unambiguous abbreviations are expanded silently, without using square brackets or italics to indicate missing letters. u/v and i/j have been regularized silently to accord with pronunciation: thus vniuersalis in the source text is rendered universalis, while 'i' is transcribed if the letter is pronounced as a vowel (imperii), and 'j' if the letter is pronounced as a consonant, i.e. like the 'y' in 'you' (majestas), even if the source writes imperij and maiestas.

Personal names and place names are transcribed exactly as written and only regularized in the Index of People and Places.

Roman numerals are reproduced as Arabic numerals, except for the sovereign's ordinal (Edwardi ivth). Arabic numerals which occur in the source texts are indicated by bold type. ob' is given as ½d, q' as ¼d and ob' q' as ¾d.

Following the convention in German, I have used a full stop after a number to indicate the ordinal rather than the cardinal, if a number is not written out. Thus, 27. die Januarii (p. 147) is to be understood as vicesimo septimo die Januarii, rather than viginti septem die Januarii.

When transcribing the customs accounts, I have numbered the ships consecutively in italics in square brackets. The individual paragraphs of longer texts have also been numbered in the same way. The reason for this is that the web version of the accounts and accounting materials for the Lancastrian period has no pagination, since the amount of text displayed on the screen depends on the size of the monitor and its resolution. Consequently, cross references – whether within a single document, from one document to another or in the indices – to 'page thus-and-such' are meaningless, and some internal sub-division of the text which can be linked in is unavoidable. Since some scholars will want to use the printed version of the edition and others the web edition, it is necessary to provide a common basis. Thus, if one scholar refers to ship No. 24 in the digital version of a particular account, those using the printed version will be able to find the vessel in question.

All dates and cross references in the source texts have been resolved in italics in square brackets in the text of the edition, rather than in footnotes.

If both the particulars of account and the controlment roll survive, certain variants have been suppressed to avoid inflating the text-critical apparatus. Thus, neither the substitution of 'y' in one text for 'i' in the other (e.g. Willyamson, Williamson) nor middle English plural variants (-es, -is, -ys etc.) have been noted in the apparatus criticus. In general, I have limited the notation of textual variants to those cases in which the variant spelling of a word changes the pronunciation. Thus, the variant federbeds will be noted against fetherbeds, but not fedderbeds or federbeddes against federbeds.

Punctuation is artificial and ignores all medieval full stops, commas and so forth. Since Latin is a syntactic language (like German), the eminently useful MGH convention – namely to employ punctuation (according to the pre-reform German rules) to mark up the grammatical structure of the sentence – has been employed here. I have also broken up the stylistically elegant, but utterly incomprehensible run-on Latin sentences of the source texts into manageable units.

Since we are dealing with late medieval administrative Latin, there are some cases which call for local by-laws.

First of all, there are a number of middle English words embedded in the Latin texts which have to be assigned a gender, since they are often modified by an abbreviated adjective (e.g. pro 1 parv' fetherbed). Since the adjectives are written out in a number of instances (pro 1 parvo fetherbed), I have arbitrarily imposed a masculine grammatical gender on all middle English words rather than litter the edition with apostrophes.

Second, the sources themselves are in a muddle as to whether the words custuma and subsidium are singular or plural, and usually avoid the problem by writing cust' and subs'. If a scribe does write out the one or the other word, it is almost inevitable that he will contradict himself, writing custuma in one line and custume a few lines later. This muddle is not merely the result of scribal carelessness or low standards of Latinity. In the fifteenth century, it was possible to differentiate between the collective noun (in the singular) denoting the charges to be paid and the individual sums (in the plural) which each merchant rendered. Even bearing this in mind, however, scribes are simply not consistent. Taking each individual text as a whole, I have done my best to reproduce what the scribe seemed to be thinking.

Appendix

1 Henry VII grants Avery, Christofer and Nicholas Rawson a licence to buy wool in England and export – either themselves or through their indigenous factors or attorneys – 500 sacks over the next five years (100 sacks per year) via any port to Italy, paying 4 marks (£2 13s 4d) per sack for customs, subsidy and all other duties, one half of that sum being due nine months after shipment and the other half nine months after that. Shipments are to be recorded in the form of indentures drawn up with the customers. — 1502 July 9. Westminster.

Hec indentura facta 26<sup>to</sup> die Septembris anno regni regis nunc Henrici vij<sup>mi</sup> decimo octavo [26 Sept. 1502] inter Willelmum Tysted et Willelmum Bulstrode armigeros collectores custumarum et subsidiorum lanarum, corriorum et pellium lanutarum in portu civitatis regis London' ex una parte ac Alveredum Rawson et Christoferum Rawson mercatores indigenas ex altera parte testatur, quod iidem Alveredus et Christoferus in quadam navi Johannis de Lopys vocata Maria de Sancto Sebastiano de portu predicto versus partes externas et transmarinas per et ultra Strictus de Marrok 23<sup>o</sup> die Septembris ultimo preterito ante datam presencium [23 Sept. 1502] exeunte eskippaverunt nonaginta quinque saccos, dimidium et duos clavos lane in partem eskippacionem quingentorum saccorum lane per ipsos Averedum Rawson, Christoferum Rawson et Nicholaum Rawson mercatores indigenas sive eorum aliquem per se, factores sive attornatos suos indigenas vigore et virtute litterarum domini regis patencium eisdem Alveredo, Christofero et Nicholao inde confectarum datarum 9<sup>o</sup> die Julii anno regni sui 17<sup>o</sup> [9 July 1502] infra terminum quinque annorum proxime post datam earundem eskippandorum. I

PARTICULARS OF ACCOUNT
29 SEPT. 1495 – 8 JULY 1496 – 29 SEPT. 1496

Particulars of account of William Tysted and Henry Assheborne for the issues of the wool customs and subsidy in London in the period from 29 Sept. 1495 to 8 July 1496 and of William Tysted for the period from 9 July to 29 Sept. 1496

WOOL CUSTOMS AND SUBSIDY PARTICULARS OF ACCOUNT 29 SEPT. 1501 – 29 SEPT. 1502

Particulars of account of William Tystede, esq., and William Bulstrode, esq., for the issues of the wool customs and subsidy in London during the period from 29 Sept. 1501 to 29 Sept. 1502

INDEX OF PEOPLE AND PLACES

In accordance with current usage, the first names of Englishmen and -women have been standardized to their current forms. Thus Willelmus in the accounts is indexed as William and so forth. Italian and Spanish first names are given in the 'ablative' (Andrea, Beaceo, Roderigo rather than Andreas, Beaceus, Roderigus). The first names of other foreigners, who are largely Dutch and German, are normally indexed in something approaching their modern forms, e.g. Johannes, Jacob, Herman, Hugo rather than Hugh (which would indicate an Englishman). However, it is not possible to be entirely consistent. Take, as an example, Willelmus. Is one to index Hanseatic merchants as Wilhelm, but Dutch merchants and shippers as Willem or Wim and the Dinanters as Guillaume? To do so would simply be to introduce incredible confusion, entirely leaving aside the intractable problem of distinguishing between merchants of Dutch and Hanseatic origin. Therefore, in a number of cases I have indexed Dutch and German merchants' first names in the current English form: e.g. Paul, William, Laurence, Andrew, Henry.

Family names have been grouped, where possible, in the index, with cross references leading the reader from the variants to the main entry, which records all variant spellings in parentheses. However, given the inconsistency of the customers' scribes, I have found it impossible to resolve all doubts and have therefore tried to steer a middle course between the splitters and the lumpers. There are cases where there can be no doubt that divergent spellings denote one and the same merchant. On the other hand, there are cases where I am all but certain that variant spellings denote one person, yet am troubled by nagging doubts. In these cases I record the names separately and referred back and forth ('see also N.N.').

The order of the family names in the index is phonological, so that, for instance, 'y' is alphabetized as 'i'.

Place names are in small capitals.

INDEX OF SUBJECTS

The index is structured so as to serve as a glossary. Hence, the main entry is under the word as it appears in the sources (zinziber), and a cross-reference leads the reader from the modern English term to the main entry (ginger see zinziber). If a term is in Middle English, the plural form is also given (e.g. alle hafte, -s); if in Latin, the genitive (e.g. allec, ecis). More than one reference per page is not noted.
